Once Purchased your visitors can search Millions of Ebooks and Flash Animations within your Website. Results are fetched from Google and Yahoo. So More and More Files Links are added to your site daily. Your visitors can Search Ebooks, Flash Animations, Microsoft Word, Powerpoint, Excel, RTF Files and download them easily by using your site.

Everything is dynamic in your Site, once installed your website is ready to go. Pages are SEO Optimized and everything is automatic, you just have to install the script on your website.

A Great Admin Panel is attached with the script so that you can easily edit your site settings, enable/disable features, manage comments, change Logo and more.

Automatic

This script is fully automatic, you just have to install it!

License

You can use this script on one domain only.

Easy Installation

Very easy installation documentation is attached with the script.

SEO Optimized

All the pages in the site are optimized for Search Engines, you can see your site's indexed pages in Google and many search engines.

Easy Earnings

You can add/edit advertisements on your website within Admin Panel, you can also add Advertisements between search results.

Files Download

Your visitors will download files from your site, not directly from the source. Files are downloaded with your sitename in the filename like "My-Good-Ebook[Yoursite.com].pdf". This will not use the server memory, everything is done on Fly!

Captcha Security

You can enable or disable Captcha Security for Comments and before Files Downloading.

CSS/HTML Template

You can easily change the template of each page without any PHP knowledge, because these templates are stored externally which can be easily edited if you have little HTML/CSS knowledge.

Site Colors

You can easily edit your website colors through Admin Panel, there are many colors settings you can modify within Admin Panel and make your site look more nicer and unique.

No Huge Hosting Required

This script just requires PHP, MYSQL and IONCUBE, which is provided by most hosting providers.

Is it Legal?

Yes, your site will be completely legal because you will not host any files on your own hosting, your site will only contain links to those files which are stored on external services.
